MANAGER COMMENTARY

March was a highly volatile month across asset classes as markets priced in the war in Ukraine, the reality of interest rate hikes globally and spikes in COVID infections in some regions. Fixed income markets finished the quarter with another poor month making it their worst start to the year on record. The Bloomberg Global Treasuries Index was down -3.55% for the month and -6.22% for the quarter while the Bloomberg Global Investment Grade Corporate Index was down -2.49% and -7.44% over the same periods. Reprise was seen in certain equity markets which recovered some of their earlier losses with the S&P 500 index posting a return of 3.71% for the month and -4.60% for the year. Meanwhile the major equities indices in the UK, Canada and Australia were up 1.78%, 3.14% and 0.60% respectively in the first quarter as a result of their high exposures to commodity producers. Russian markets continued to suffer throughout the month as further sanctions were enacted, credit rating agencies downgraded government debt and securities were removed from market-wide indices. The fallout of this fuelled further stagflation concerns as the prices of major commodities, such as wheat and oil, continued to climb against a backdrop of more hawkish central banks, mixed manufacturing data and higher than expected inflation readings. A spike in COVID infections in China has resulted in large scale lockdowns in the country putting further pressure on already stretched supply chains. As a result, many real assets had another strong month to finish off a very strong quarter; the Bloomberg Commodity Index returned 8.65% for the month while the FTSE EPRA/NAREIT UK Property Index was up 4.22% for the month.
